SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

- Giuseppe De Florentis is one of the leading PCI individuals engaged in l, economic and commercial activities on behalf of the Party. His chief collaborators are (fnu) Compagno and (fnu) D'Ambrosio.
- De Florentis was instrumental in the organization of Centro Economico della Ricostruzione (Center for Economic Reconstruction). He has organized a society called Consorzio Italiano Esportazione Importazione (Italian Import-Export Society) and another firm known as E.N.D.A.C., (sic), which engages in the distribution of combustibles. The two firms have their offices in Via Senato 28, Milan.
- De Florentis and D'Ambrosio have enlisted the services of the engineer Eric Coopman, a Nenni Socialist, and Count Paolo Sella, a pro-Communist monarchist. The latter two have organized a confederation of small industries with headquarters in Rome. Coopman has organized an artisan organization called Compagnia Internazionale Prodotti Industriali (International Company for Industrial Products) with offices in Via Francesco Nullo 8, Milan.
- De Florentis is also active in the Milan Casa della Cultura,
